

March 3, 2012

"Embrace Diversity, Empower Our World"

Entertainment Application

The Hodges University Diversity Committee is seeking entertaining acts for the 2012 Hodges University Diversity Festival. This year, we will produce a program of entertainment that represents a wide variety of cultures from around the world. In keeping with this theme, we are seeking acts that contain a specific multi-cultural component.

Please provide a brief description of your act in the space below, particularly in regards to its multi-cultural appeal. As the Hodges University Diversity Festival will be a family-oriented activity, we request that your act refrain from the use of provocative costumes, choreography, or language.

Name of Applicant: _____

Phone #: _____ Fax #: _____

Email address: _____

Country or Culture being represented: _____

Name of performer (s):

Our entertainers will be performing free of charge, and are not required to pay an application or table fee.

In addition, our entertainers will be listed in all of the advertisement for the Festival, both printed and media if confirmed in time.

Acceptance is based upon approval by our Entertainment Committee.

Hodges University
2012 Diversity Festival

March 3, 2012

“Embrace Diversity, Empower Our World”

Please list any special needs here:

To submit your application, please Contact the Hodges University Diversity Festival

Entertainment Director, Celina Rodriguez at:

LinaGMusic@gmail.com

The deadline date for applications to be submitted is January 31, 2012.